RESULTS

- 1Q25 earnings significantly below expectations. Aztech Global's (Aztech) 1Q25 net profit of S$1.5m (-91% yoy) is significantly below expectations, forming only 3% of our full-year estimate. Revenue for 1Q25 declined 67% yoy due to lower sales volume of IoT devices and data-communication products, attributable to reduced demand from customers. Aztech generated net cash of S$18.6m from its operating activities as it continued with its disciplined cost and tight working capital management and delivered free cash flow of S$18.3m on prudent capital expenditure. As of 1Q25, Aztech's net cash position was healthy at S$316m (S$0.40/share), while its net asset value stood at S$0.44/share.
- Challenging outlook and strategy to navigate the tough environment. As the global economic climate remains mired in uncertainty with the evolving trade wars and geopolitical tensions, Aztech is focusing on the execution of the Aztech Strategy outlined below to navigate the current landscape: a) strengthening its customer base by enhancing relationships with current customers while securing new customers; b) maintaining a diversified and extensive network of suppliers to mitigate tariff-related risks; c) leveraging on its flexibility to expand its manufacturing capacities in both Malaysia and China; d) adopting a disciplined approach to costs, cash and capital management to optimise financial strength; and e) tightening its foreign exchange risk management policy to manage and monitor any possible exposure. With the above strategies, Aztech will be looking to tap on opportunities that might arise from the current challenging situation.

STOCK IMPACT

- Leveraging Malaysia facility to expand customer base. As part of its customer base expansion initiative, Aztech is positioning its Malaysia facility as the manufacturing partner for customers looking to mitigate supply chain risks arising from geopolitical and tariff uncertainties. Leveraging its capabilities to provide vertically integrated manufacturing solutions from plastic injection, surface mount technology (SMT), printed circuit board (PCB) assembly and test, box build, etc, Aztech is actively engaging and collaborating with its customers to achieve business objectives more effectively.
- Five new customers to start production in 2H25. The new automated production line at the Malaysia facility remains on track for commissioning in 2Q25 and this is expected to improve productivity and product quality. Additionally, Aztech secured five new customers from the consumer, health-tech and industrial segments during 1Q25 with commercial production scheduled to start from 2H25.

EARNINGS REVISION/RISK

- We slash our 2025-27 revenue forecasts by 58-59%, driven by weaker-than-expected results and the global environment fraught with uncertainty. As a result, our earnings estimates are revised downward by 61-65% for the same period.

VALUATION/RECOMMENDATION

- Downgrade to SELL with a 29% lower target price of S$0.46, pegged to 1.1x 2025F book value. This is based on -2SD to Aztech's long-term P/B band. Previously, we valued Aztech based on 9x 2024 EPS, pegged to 0.5SD above Aztech's long-term mean PE. Our new P/B valuation methodology is adopted to capture the potential earnings trough cycle and high cash value of Aztech, at S$316m (S$0.40/share) as of 1Q25.

SHARE PRICE CATALYST

- Steady order wins.
- Better-than-expected forex gain and cost management.
- Dividend surprise.
